Top Ten Reasons to Major in Mathematics at Southeastern

10. You want to know what you could possibly study after calculus!

9. It will impress your friends and family when you say, ‘I am a math major!’

8. Several scholarships are available to only Mathematics majors.

7. Our math program is the best undergraduate math program in the state because our faculty members are dedicated to student success; our alumni have received the highest fellowships available for graduate schools in the area.

6. Math majors historically have done 12.8% better than average on the LSAT exam and 13.3% better on the GMAT test; math majors have historically had the highest scores on these exams.

5. You probably can’t think of a degree that will be more impressive to an employer than a degree in Mathematics.

4. There are great jobs in mathematics. Math-specific jobs are consistently ranked in the top ten professions in terms of job satisfaction. They pay well and have good job security and growth potential.

3. You like to understand why things work the way they do. Mathematics is the key to understanding all sorts of scientific areas like chemistry, physics and biology.

2. You are good at math. If you can do math, you can probably be good at any academic subject, and employers know that.

1. You like math! Many engineering and science majors switch to math when they realize that what they really like about engineering or science is the mathematics.
Top Ten Reasons to Major in Mathematics Education at Southeastern

10. You want to be a math teacher!

9. You think you might want to be a math teacher, but you want a degree that is strong enough so that you can do anything else, like be a scientist, mathematician, actuary, doctor, pharmacist, etc.

8. You know you could be a math teacher without a Math Education degree, but you might end up like that horrible math teacher you once had.

7. Several scholarships are available only to Mathematics Education majors.

6. You liked tutoring your friends in math.

5. Southeastern Math Education graduates have a 100% rate of employment and we have had graduates teaching in all 50 states.

4. Your best role model was your math teacher and you want to follow in their footsteps.

3. You are good at math and you want to use your talents in a way you can be proud of when you retire and look back on your life.

2. You like math and you want a major leading to a specific vocation.

1. You want to be a math teacher!