Spring 2018

January – May

Southeastern Oklahoma State University (SE) partners with Eastern Oklahoma State College to provide classes and programs at the SE McCurtain County Campus (SEMCC). Both institutions offer classes at the McCurtain County Campus. Students often take classes from both institutions in order to find the classes that meet their needs and fits their busy lifestyle.

If you have a question regarding your admission status at SEMCC, contact the local admission office located within the front office in room 100, or via email at MCCAdmission@se.edu, or via phone by calling 580-376-5231

For advisement, contact one of the following:

General advisement, Business, Criminal Justice, Safety, Early Intervention and Child Development, 4-year degrees, undecided

Mrs. Kendra Gross, Director
kgross@se.edu or 580-376-5206
