

Advanced Standing Examinations

Advanced standing credit can be earned at Southeastern by evaluating a student's previous learning experiences through testing. Most departments offer some courses by examination. Students should consult with the chair of the department offering the course of interest as to whether it can be taken by examination.

Application forms for these exams can be obtained from the office of the appropriate academic dean. Administration of the exam and the granting of the credit must be approved by the respective department chair and the dean of the school.

The charge for administering an institutional advanced standing examination is $7.50 per semester credit hour and must be paid prior to taking the examination.

Credit for Military/Training

Students may be granted credit for basic training, for formal service school courses, and for approved college-level examinations passed while in military service. In general, the credit is granted in accordance with the recommendations of the Commission on Accreditation of Service Experiences/American Council on Education (ACE).

Depending on service entry date, AARTS, SMART, CCAF or DANTES transcripts may be available to veterans for credit evaluations. If not, credit may be awarded based on the DD-214 and service certificates.

CLEP Testing

Southeastern is a National (open) testing center. Exams taken through the National or open testing conditions are transferable to any institution accepting CLEP scores (check receiving institution's criteria for accepting and awarding credit). The University awards credit for the exams listed in Table B. Students may not take a CLEP exam more than once in a particular subject area. In addition, a CLEP exam may not be taken in a particular subject area in which the student has previously enrolled. Other restrictions may apply.

Southeastern's CLEP code is 6657. Cost is $75 per test; however prices are subject to change. Advance registration is required. Forms are available in the Learning Center (580) 745-2452. Written requests should be sent to: Joy Cornelison, Learning Center, Southeastern Oklahoma State University, 1405 N. 4th, PMB 4090, Durant, OK 74701-0609.

Extracurricular Credit Brochure

- ◆ ACE College Credit
- ◆ Advanced Placement
- ◆ Advanced Standing
- ◆ CLEP Testing
- ◆ Military Training Credit

(Effective July 1, 2006)

Extracurricular credit is credit granted through means other than the completion of formal college-level courses. (Listed under Non-Formal Credit in the Undergraduate Catalog) This brochure describes the various ways extracurricular credit can be granted by the University. Testing is one means of evaluating extracurricular learning. Testing methods include institutionally prepared examinations, institutionally administered performance testing, and standardized national tests especially designed for the establishment of credit. Extracurricular credit can also be granted for noncollegiate sponsored instruction (e.g., military training/learning, etc.).

The following pertains to all methods of extracurricular credit described in this brochure. Additional information is available in the catalog.

Validation:

Extracurricular credit earned through any of the following methods must be validated by successful completion of 12 or more semester hours of academic work at Southeastern and will be recorded on the transcript only if the student is currently enrolled.

Grading:

All credit through extracurricular means will be recorded with a grade of "P". Only those courses for which the minimum passing score is attained will be recorded.

Maximum Credit:

Maximum extracurricular credit accepted depends on the type of degree program a student is pursuing:

For non-education degree programs (B.A. or B.S.), the amount of extracurricular credit (advanced standing, CLEP, correspondence, military training, etc.) which may be awarded shall not exceed one-half of the total semester hours required at the lower-division level, and not more than one-half of the total semester hours required at the upper-division level for the B.A. and B.S. degrees.

For education degree programs (B.A. or B.S.), not more than one-fourth of the work used to satisfy requirements in any area of preparation (professional education, general education, specialized education) nor more than one-fourth of the total academic work submitted in an approved teacher-certificate program may be taken by nonformal study (advanced standing, CLEP, correspondence, military training, etc.).

Any additional questions regarding extracurricular credit may be directed to the Registrar's Office at 580-745-2165.

ACE College Credit Recommendation Service

The American Council on Education (ACE) administers the Registry of Credit Recommendations for organizations participating in the College Credit Recommendation Service (CCRS) [formerly called Program on Noncollegiate Sponsored Instruction (PONSI)]. The registry offers the sponsor's course participants a permanent, computerized record of all courses evaluated by the College Credit Recommendation Service.

Currently enrolled students may be granted credit in accordance with the American Council on Education (ACE) recommendations, after completion of 12 semester hours of course work at Southeastern Oklahoma State University. To obtain credit, the student must have a transcript provided by the American Council on Education (ACE).

For information on obtaining a transcript or additional information, call (202)939-9475, e-mail (credit@ace.nche.edu), or write to College Credit Recommendation Service, American Council on Education, One Dupont Circle NW, Suite 250, Washington, DC 20036-1193.

Advanced Placement (AP)

The Advanced Placement Program (AP), offered through the College Entrance Examination Board, allows high school students to take examinations for credit at the college level. High school counselors assist students with testing arrangements. Table A lists the courses for which Southeastern awards advanced standing credit if the student scores at a level three (3) or higher. The last digit of the 4-digit course number indicates the number of semester hours earned when a student is awarded credit for the course.
