

Faculty Senate Committee on Committees
Report to Faculty Senate
3 p.m., Wednesday, February 23, 2022

Membership: Kathy Boothe, Randy Clark (chair), Kay Daigle, Rolando Diaz, Amy Gantt, Srimal Garusinghe, Ashley Hampton, Kate Shannon, & Jeri Walker

Information Items:

- CoC is responsible for appointing faculty members to University Committees subject to FS approval as discussed in the APPM sec. 3.3.3.2. The responsibilities of those committees are outlined in APPM sec. 3.5.
- CoC anticipates fifty-five University Committee vacancies due to expiring terms and faculty departures with more anticipated because of retiring and unexpected departures of faculty after the Spring/Summer terms.
- During the month of March 2022, email communication will be sent to all full-time faculty requesting their top three preferences for University Committee appointments. In addition, to assist in filling University Committee vacancies, a list of all current full-time faculty (and retiring/departing faculty) will be requested from VPAA Dr. Golden. The Committee will attempt to fill all University Committee vacancies based on faculty preferences, first. Faculty that do not respond with preferences will, next, be used to fill all remaining vacancies.
- The chair of CoC has been invited to speak to the Mutual Mentoring Project group, 2 p.m., Friday, February 25 about faculty participation on University Committees.

Respectfully submitted,
Fendrich R. Clark, Ph.D., Chair, CoC
