1 Introduction

A very good introduction goes here....

2 First Section

An example of a citation is this: [1]. Note that if you go to SeminarPaper.bib you and search for “Tittel”, you will see a bibliography entry with that name. To refer to a reference, use ‘slash’cite.

3 Second Section

We are going to introduce subsections here... note that even subsections can have labels!

3.1 First subsection of Second Section

We can put lots of words here, and then we can reference not only this section, but this subsection!

3.2 Second subsection of Second Section

The label for subsection one of section two was SectionTwoSubSectionOne..... Lets refer to both: The label for subsection 3.1 of section 3 is SectionTwoSubSectionOne. We could also refer to the introduction, which is section 1.

3.3 Section Three

Stuff Stuff Stuff.... Maybe you need to have the reader refer to Appendix A here?

4 Section Three

More words would go here....

4.1 Section Three Subsection One

Stuff Stuff Stuff.... Maybe you need to have the reader refer to Appendix B here?

4.2 Section Three Subsection Two

Blah Blah Blah....

5 Concluding Remarks

You should wrap up your paper in this section.

6 Acknowledgments

Thank all your wonderful fans for all their support throughout the years here....

A Appendix A - Extra Stuff Part 1

Perhaps you have lots of tables or figures that need to be put in, but would break up the paper too much? Put them here!

B Appendix B - Extra Stuff Part 2

Perhaps you have even more stuff, but different stuff, that needs to go in, so Appendix B it is!
