

Distance Education Council
October 21, 2022
Agenda

- I. Establish Quorum (9 voting Members Required) In attendance: Aaron Adair, Connor Alford, Angie Anderson, Jani Barker, Kay Daigle, Nick Nichols, Alisha Ridenour, Dena Rymel, Kate Shannon, Christala Smith, Carol Sullivan, Jeri Walker, Dennis Westman

- II. Call to Order – 2:02 PM
 - a. Minutes for 09/23/22 meeting distributed to DEC and stand as approved

- III. LMS Transition / Cohort Updates
 - a. Christala restated the email sent to faculty on 10/18/22 concerning some issues with migration/creation of pilot courses of Canvas. Blackboard is still available, but selected pilot courses (2) will be expected to being March term in Canvas.
 - b. Pilot course meetings are going according to schedule
 - c. Yuja and InSpace training session on 10/26/22 at 2:00 PM in Zoom. Recordings will be made available to Pilot cohorts after the meeting.

- IV. Online Course Review Subcommittee Update
 - a. Kay Daigle reported that sub-subcommittees have been formed and some groups have already met and discussed topics assigned. More information is available in the minutes for the Online Course Review Subcommittee meeting in Bb and in Zoom recording for DEC meeting today (10/21/22)
 - b. Course review teams (Course Development, Course Review, and Mentoring) gave a brief report of their findings and progress on the course review progress

- V. Other Business
 - a. VP Golden has received updates on OER grants
 - b. VP Westman announced that the B&N contract for selling textbooks is expiring in March 2023.
 - c. Kate Shannon announced that the Dept of Ed is opening up microcredentials and seeks information regarding SE's progress on offering microcredentials. Christala said that it is currently being tested.

- VI. Adjourn – 2:28 PM

Next Meeting – November 11, 2022

2:00 PM

Zoom