

Southeastern Oklahoma State University Professional Development
First Amendment, Expressive Speech, and 70 O.S. §2120

Part 1: State Law

- Passed in the 2019 Oklahoma Legislature, signed by the Governor, effective August 30, 2019. Available online.
- In brief, the law requires that, on Oklahoma public colleges and universities campuses, the campus community and the public may use unrestricted accessible outdoor space for non-commercial expressive activities because this space is now designated by this statute a traditional public forum. As such, this space can be used unless it materially and substantially disrupts the functioning of the University subject to non-discriminatory time, place, and manner restrictions.
- This law is consistent with historical federal guidance regarding 1st Amendment protected events on this issue, but also requires:
 - New University policy
 - New training for faculty, staff, and students
 - Annual report to the Governor and Legislature
 - Posted on university webpage (www.se.edu/freexpression)
 - Notification of lawsuits

Part 2: University Policy

- In accordance with the state law, Southeastern Oklahoma State University has developed a policy which addresses the bolded key terms above. The policy is available on the university webpage (www.se.edu/freexpression).
- Take time to review the time, place, and manner restrictions.

Part 3: Expectations

- Guide outdoor visitors to the correct resources on the www.se.edu/freexpression.
- Greet outdoor expressive speech visitors with a Campus Free Expression Distribution Card and introducing yourself. This card can be found and printed from the following link www.se.edu/freexpression.

Part 4: Additional Helpful Information

- The University designates the following indoor facilities as unavailable for Expressive Activity: administrative offices, laboratories, Glen D. Johnson Student Union and (during instructional hours) classrooms.
- The public and Southeastern Oklahoma State University employees may reserve outdoor space by contacting the Director of Student Life at (580) 745-2947 or by visiting the following link <https://www.se.edu/student-life>.
- Southeastern Oklahoma State University students may reserve both indoor and outdoor space by completing the Student Organization Room Reservation Form through the Office of Student Life.
- The campus community and the public may use generally accessible outdoor areas for non-commercial expressive activities on a first come, first served basis without giving prior notice if the activity does not materially and substantially disrupt the function of the University, as defined by state law.
- Time, place and manner restrictions are in effect. Please read the policy in its entirety. Examples include:
 - No items may be attached in any manner to trees, bushes, benches, light poles, buildings, vehicles, or permanent signs.
 - Non-commercial pamphlets, handbills, fliers, and other written materials may be distributed on a person-to-person basis in open areas outside of building if done in a way to avoid substantial littering on the campus.
